FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mus White, author of Jasmine i min hule hånd, will be traveling back in time to Christianshavns Bibliotek, the very library she visited as a child living in Christianshavn after WW II when she was known as Marianne Skov.

She will be present to sign copies of her newly translated novel at an event on November the 22nd, 19 hour, at the Christianshavns Bibliotek. Passages from her novel will be read by her niece; celebrated Danish vocalist Kira Skov.

Jasmine in my hand: “The writing is vivid, the situation unusual, the atmosphere oddly haunting.” –Vivian Gornick, author of Fiece Attachments: A memoir

“ ... Mus White is an engaging, poetic writer and a wonderful storyteller.” –Jon Thurber, Los Angeles Times.

Mus White grew up on Dronningensgade #8 in a one-room apartment with shared outdoor toilets. During her childhood, she spent many happy hours at Christianshavns Bibliotek, mentioned in her novel. In her book, she captures the world of Pia, a young Danish girl who whirls back and forth through time like a space traveler, alternating between an impoverished childhood and what becomes a privileged married life in Los Angeles.

Mus White is an award-winning bibliographer of photographically illustrated children’s books. Her collection of children's books is housed at Princeton University. She is the writer of From the Mundane to the Magical and translator of Hans Christian Andersen. She is also a member of the prominent Zamorano Club in Los Angeles. She and her husband, Stephen White, are internationally recognized photography art collectors and dealers. In 1988, their collection was exhibited at the Carlsberg Glyptotek Museum titled Parallels and Contrasts. Their personal collection was also exhibited at the Van Gogh Museum in Amsterdam in 2001, The Photograph and the American Dream.

Mus White will be at Hotel Kong Arthur from Nov. 18th –26th. Phone# 33 11 12 12
