FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: "On November 30th, this year, my grandfather, Winston Churchill will celebrate his 137th Birthday. Not a special number you might say, but for us as a family every one of Grandpapa's birthdays was a special event. He took a childlike delight in opening his presents and blowing out the candles on his cake. Each year Madame Floris, founder of the famed Soho bakery - by Appointment to the Queen - made him a cake, which she decorated in icing sugar with a theme from his life. One had all his medals, one all his hats, which were numerous and of great variety, and another some of his witty quotations. The one I liked best was covered with tiny copies of the scenes he painted on his holidays in France.

To mark this event I have made a new art print, which I call 'Winston at Work' but I could have as easily named it 'Finest Hours' or 'Winston at Play.' It pictures him with two of his favorite things...writing and painting. He is at his easel, surrounded by books, most of which he has written himself."

- Edwina Sandys, November 2011

"Winston at Work" has a full-page illustration in the new book Edwina Sandys ART, the comprehensive volume of 40 years of her provocative, exciting and beautiful art.

Winston Churchill born November 30, 1874 at Blenheim Palace, died January 24, 1965.

Edwina Sandys ART is available through Glitterati Incorporated. Art of Edwina Sandys: A Retrospective is at the Alexandre Gertsman Gallery, 652 Broadway, 2nd Floor, New York, through December 10, 2011. Prints of "Winston at Work" are available through Edwina Sandys' website.
